

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT SPRING 2011 SERIES

The Civic Engagement Committee is proud to present its first spring series. Join us for an exciting discussion on how Salem State University collaborates with the external community in a variety of ways and areas. The series will feature three discussions led by faculty, students and community partners who will present their experiences around the following topics:

Issues on Immigration, Residency and Community

Monday, February 28

11:30 am-12:30 pm

Ellison Campus Center, MLK Room
Faculty Speakers: Avi Chomsky, history, and Kristine Doll, foreign languages

Nutrition and Public Health

Monday, March 28

11:30 am-12:30 pm

Ellison Campus Center, MLK Room
Faculty Speakers: Steven Dion, sport and movement science, and Barbara Poremba, nursing

Earth Days 2011 Special Forum: Environment, Waste and Sustainability

Monday, April 11

12:30-1:30 pm

Ellison Campus Center, MLK Room
Faculty Speakers: John Hayes, geography, and Christine MacTaylor, chemistry and physics

If you have any questions on the event or would like to let us know about a project you are working on within these topics, please email external affairs at ea@salemstate.edu.